

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mayor Mitchell, N. Y., and party touring public schools.

Body of unidentified man, 60, found on sidewalk. S. Jefferson st.

Hazel Pollock, music student, held for thefts, says she borrowed things.

Major Funkhouser claims Wilson av. district is morally clean.

$150,000 estate of Emma J. Bush goes to husband.

Mamie Fowler, 16, and Violet Williams, 17, 2633 Calumet av., missing.

Chevalier Emanuel, ass't. director Chicago Grand Opera Co., dead.

Change of venue granted William Rapp in Schumann-Heink divorce suit.

Amos Hughes, 8, hit by motor truck. Dead. Robert J. Fichtel, driver, arrested.

Henry D. Watson, Union League Club, bankrupt. Assets $50. Liabilities $220,000.

Mrs. Dora Meder, 24, 3357 Hutchinson, and Mrs. Kiefflich, 4119 W. 31st pl., hit by auto driven by Edgar Frink, 2052 Byron.

Body of Mrs. Julia Moran, 21 N. May st., found in home. Dead for weeks.

Helen Morton home, without hubby.

One hundred dollar verdict against Jacob Hoffman. Refused to pay lawyers when he got jail term.

Edward J. Smith, attorney, 5027 Drexel blvd., suicided. Gun.

Mrs. Adeline Hastings Lyle, 4018 Wilcox av., suspected hubby. Went on supposed visit. Returned suddenly. Found "Miss Mabel Charlebois" with husband.

Sophie Grossman, 17, 923 Cypress st., missing. Foul play feared.

Four jurors picked in Peter Rusetos' murder trial.

John Lindstrom, 728 Oakwood blvd., wanted. Alleged disappeared with $400 of Anna Broman, 4733 Sheridan road.

Joseph H. Logue's jewelry identified at trial of John Faith for robbery.

Elevator dropped 5 floors at Smith Bros.' warehouse, 2219 Cottage Grove av. Six injured.

Women's style extremes scored by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, head of Fed. Women's Clubs.

Tax assessors want $30,000 to continue delayed bills work.

Jail for speeders urged by Judge Fry. Wants prison term for soused drivers.

Julius Grayson, 75, 7447 Calumet av., held for alleged libel. Said to have villified Jos. Hughes, veterinary surgeon.

Dogs bit 14 Tuesday.

$2,000,000 in buildings and machinery to be removed for boulevard link.

Porter Metrail, 4012 S. Campbell av., tried to tell creation story publicly. Held for sanity test.

Fire Att'y. probing fire at International Car Co. shop.

Nellie Hampton, 4723 Evans av., fell 3 floors. Lit on mattress. Safe.

John Welsh's Cicero saloon looted. $35.

L. J. Shaler, Joliet, Ill., dead. Heart disease.

Two deserters escaped from Fort Sheridan guardhouse. Guard gone, too.

Mrs. G. L. Johnstone, 4017 S. Michigan av., fined $5 for threatening janitor.

George Daw, Reading, Pa., held for passing worthless check. Miss Grace Evens, complainant.

Body of man, 30, found in river, N. Sangamon st.

Police ambulance hit barber pole W. Ohio st. Cops and surgeon jumped. Patient uninjured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Boening, 1214 Wrightwood av., knocked unconscious by holdup. $20 and gems gone.

Albert Morris, Dunning patient, got intoxicated. Fell. Dead.

June number Monthly Bulletin of N. W. Side Mchts. Assn. hammers